

JFCS and The Department of Behavioral Health,
Office of Addiction Services presents

Problem Gambling: The Pathways Model and Women, Trauma, and Gambling

Our Partner:

The morning session will provide participants with an understanding of the Blaszczynski Pathways Model of Gambling Addiction. In the afternoon session, participants will gain an understanding of the impact of stress, relationships, and trauma on womens' experiences as gamblers or as the spouse/partner of a gambler.

When: Thursday, June 2, 2016, 8:30 am – 4:00 pm

Where: 2100 Arch Street, 2nd Floor, Phila, PA 19103

Cost: There is no cost to attend the training, which includes light breakfast and lunch. Social Work CEUs are pending.

RSVP: by Friday, May 15
Melissa Blackson at 267.256.2053 or MBlackson@jfcsp Philly.org

A.M. Session Objectives:

- Increase understanding of the Pathways Model
- Distinguish among the three types of gamblers described in the Pathways Model
- Increase awareness of counseling interventions appropriate for compulsive gamblers

P.M. Session Objectives:

- Increase awareness of the duality of roles that women experience related to gambling addiction
- Increase understanding of the impact of trauma on women as gamblers or spouse/partner of a gambler
- Increase clinical intervention skills with women in either role

CEU's: This program is co-sponsored by Bryn Mawr College Graduate School of Social Work and Social Research. As a CSWE accredited program, Bryn Mawr College GSSWSR is a pre-approved provider of continuing education for social workers, professional counselors, and marriage and family therapists in PA and many other states.