

Second Annual Conference on

A Full House: Gambling's Effect on Families and Society

Tuesday, May 12, 2015

8:30 AM – 3:15 PM

Temple University, Howard Gittis Student Center
1755 North 13th Street, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania

Featuring Keynote Speaker Jon Grant, JD, MD, MPH, University of Chicago on Gambling Disorders and Impulsivity in Young Adults

Highlighting Presenter Carl E. Robertson, MRE, M.Div.; University of Maryland on The Maryland Smart Choices Youth Gambling Prevention Program

Temple University's Center for Social Policy and Community Development is holding a free one-day conference on problem gambling and invites you to participate. Note: 4.0 Social Work Continuing Education Credits available

To register, search www.eventbrite.com or click here (<http://www.eventbrite.com/e/a-full-house-gamblings-effect-on-families-and-society-tickets-16284125257>)
For more information: email cspcd@temple.edu

